POSITION OVERVIEW:

The United States District Court – Middle District of Louisiana is accepting applications for the position of Probation/Pretrial Services Officer. This position reports to a Supervisory U. S. Probation Officer. By statute, Probation/Pretrial Services Officers serve in a judiciary law enforcement position and assist in the administration of justice and promote community safety, gather information, supervise offenders/defendants, interact with collateral agencies, prepare reports, conduct investigations, and present recommendations to the court. Officers perform duties that involve general pretrial services or probation cases.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

- Conducts investigations, which include offense, prior record, and personal and family.
- Compiles, analyzes, and evaluates information gathered during presentence investigations. Prepares presentence reports.
- Supervises offenders to facilitate adherence to imposed conditions, reduce risk to the community, and to provide correctional treatment, as necessary. Develops and implements supervision plans.
- Maintains personal contact with offenders through office and community/home visits and by telephone. Refers offenders to appropriate outside agencies such as medical and drug treatment facilities, and employment and training sources.
- Initiates contacts with, replies to, and seeks information from organizations and persons concerning offenders' behavior and conditions of supervision. Detects and investigates possible violations and implements appropriate alternatives and sanctions. Reports violations to appropriate authorities.
- Conducts preliminary interviews and other investigations, as required.
- Maintains a detailed written record of case activity.
- Performs all other duties as required by the Court.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE:

Applicants must be U. S. citizens or eligible to work in the United States. Applicants must possess a four year (Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science) degree from an accredited college or university in a field of academic study such as criminal justice, criminology, psychology, sociology, human relations, business or public administration AND one of the following:

- One year specialized experience equivalent to the CL-23; or
- Completion of Bachelor's degree and superior academic achievement; or
- Completion of one academic year of graduate work in a field of study closely related to the position.

The requirements listed above are not subject to substitutions.

PREFERRED SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE:

- Knowledge of federal law and the criminal justice system and how it relates to the role and function of the probation/pretrial services officer.
- Strong familiarity with techniques in supervising defendants: skill in working with violent and/or difficult individuals and implementing negotiation and motivation techniques.
- Ability to exercise discretion; demonstrated skill in legal reasoning and critical thinking.
- Knowledge of automated/internet resources and systems available for conducting background checks, criminal histories, and other investigative databases (ex. National Crime Information Center)
- Excellent organizational and problem solving skills. Ability to compile and summarize information within established time frames.
- Knowledge of legal terminology and the Bail Reform Act.
- Ability to interact and communicate effectively (orally and in writing) with individuals of diverse backgrounds including criminal defendants, law enforcement personnel, judicial personnel, and attorneys.
- Ability to follow safety procedures within the office and while in the community.
- Master's degree preferred.

MEDICAL REQUIREMENTS:

The duties of probation officers require the investigation and management of alleged criminal offenders or convicted offenders who present physical danger to officers and to the public. In the supervision, treatment, and control of these offenders, these duties require moderate to arduous physical exercise, including prolonged periods of walking and standing, physical dexterity and coordination necessary to operate a firearm, and use of self-defense tactics. On a daily basis, officers face unusual mental and physical stress because they are subject to danger and possible harm during frequent, direct contact with individuals who are suspected or convicted of committing federal offenses.

Prior to appointment, the selectee considered for this position will undergo a medical examination and drug screening. Upon successful completion of the medical examination and drug screening, the selectee may then be appointed provisionally, pending a favorable suitability determination by the court. In addition, as conditions of employment, the incumbent will be subject to ongoing random drug screenings, updated background investigations every five years, and as deemed necessary by management for reasonable cause, may be subject to subsequent fitness-for-duty evaluations.

MAXIMUM ENTRY AGE:

U. S. Probation/Pretrial Services Officers are covered under the law enforcement retirement provision that requires mandatory separation at age 57 with at least 20 years of service due to the physical requirements of the position. Therefore, first-time appointees must have not reached their 37th birthday at the time of appointment. Applicants age 37 or over who have previous law enforcement officer experience under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) and who have either a subsequent break in service or intervening service in a non-law enforcement officer position may have their previous law enforcement officer experience subtracted from their age to determine whether they meet the maximum age requirement.

BENEFITS:

Judiciary employees serve under excepted appointment (not civil service). The Federal benefits package includes:

- Ten (10) paid Federal holidays
- Paid annual and sick leave
- Retirement benefits under the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS)
- Tax Deferred Retirement savings and investment plan under Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) with employer matching contributions.
- Health benefits under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHB)
- Supplemental Dental and Vision Benefits offered through Federal Employees Vision and Dental Plan (FEDVIP)
- Life insurance benefits under the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Program (FGLI)
- Flexible Benefits Program for Health Care Reimbursement and Child Care Reimbursement
- Federal Employees Group Long Term Disability Program (FEGLTD)
- Group Long Term Care Insurance through the Federal Judiciary or the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) or CNA
- Paid on-site assigned parking
- 24-hour fitness facility

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Due to the volume of applications received, the U. S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office will contact only the most qualified applicants who will be invited to one (or more) personal interview(s) and will be required to complete a written test. Applicants selected for interviews will be required to travel to the designated location at their own expense. The Court is not authorized to reimburse applicants for travel and/or relocation expenses. Only those who are interviewed in person will receive a written response regarding their application status. If you are not contacted by our office, another candidate within the recruitment field, with either more experience or qualifications, was selected.

Please do not call.

A high sensitive background investigation with law enforcement agencies, including fingerprint and criminal record checks, will be conducted as a condition of employment. Any applicant selected for a position will be hired provisionally pending successful completion of the background investigation, drug screen, and medical examination. Unsatisfactory results may result in termination of employment.

The Court requires employees to adhere to a Code of Ethics and Conduct which is available to applicants for review upon request. Employees of the United States Courts are NOT included in the government's Civil Service classification. They are, however, entitled to the same benefits as other federal government employees. Employees who work at the Court are considered at-will and work at the pleasure of the court. This position is subject to mandatory electronic fund transfer (direct deposit) participation for payment of net earnings.

The Court has the right to modify the conditions of this vacancy announcement, withdraw the announcement, or fill the position at any time before the closing date, any of which may occur without prior written notice. The selectee will be subject to a one year probationary period in this position. Multiple vacancies may be filled from this announcement.

The Court provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities in accordance with the American with Disabilities Act. If you need a reasonable accommodation, please notify human resources at humanresources@lamd.uscourts.gov. The decision on granting reasonable accommodations will be made on a case by case basis. The United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office for the Middle District of Louisiana is an Equal Opportunity Employer and values diversity in the work place.
