4. The various blocks of cards shall be kept in a box appropriately marked which, when not in use, shall be locked and safely kept by the Clerk.
5. When the initial paper is presented and given the proper number, the Clerk shall draw one card at random from the appropriate block. The Clerk shall then assign the case to the Judge whose section is stamped on the card. The assignment shall be by stamping on the paper presented for filing the section shown on the card that was randomly pulled from the block. All subsequent papers filed in the action will bear the case number assigned and the section assigned.

6. When a block of cards for any category has been emptied or nearly emptied, the block shall be replenished with cards in the same manner as provided for original placement.
7. Credit shall be given to the section to whom a case is assigned outside these procedures, e.g., assignment of a related case.
